Call for International Language Certifications

4) NOT having already obtained, from the university to which they belong, a similar reimbursement for the same purposes.

Allocation of contributions

The contributions will be assigned, until the available ceiling is exhausted, in order of receipt of the applications sent via the above form. In the event that the students have achieved more than one language certification in the reference period, only the cost of the most expensive certification or, in any case, of a single certification will be reimbursed.

By November 2023, once the validity of the documentation has been verified, Collegio will refund the full amount of the registration fee for the international exam.

We point out that Collegio is NOT responsible for any errors or problems resulting from the failure (or incorrect) compilation of the IBAN area of the Student Portal or from the failure (or incorrect) updating of their bank details. We therefore invite you to enter your bank details with care and attention by the deadline.
