Call for Study Awards

reserved to 'First generation' students and / or female students enrolled in the following degree programs: Engineering, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Economics, Statistics

Year 2021

Art. 1 – Object of the announcement

Collegio Universitario di Torino Renato Einaudi, thanks to the contribution of McKinsey & Company, announces € 2.500 gross for study prizes.

Students of Collegio Einaudi, holders of a study place for the academic year, with the following characteristics can apply:

- First Generation (students whose parents do not have a degree) or

- Female students enrolled at Turin universities in a Master's Degree course or a PhD in Engineering, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Economics, Statistics.

Art. 2 – Participation requirements

The recipients of the award are the students of Collegio who:

are holders of a study place at Collegio Einaudi in the academic year 2021/22 have not suspended their study place for the whole academic year 2021/22 for mobility / internship projects;

+ are enrolled for the academic year 2021/22 in the second year of a master's degree course or a doctoral course in the disciplines relating to Engineering, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Economics, Statistics;

+ are 'First Generation' (students whose parents do not have a degree) or female students.

It should be noted that the students interested can also apply for other Collegio calls for prizes or benefits provided that, if you are the winner of more than one call, you opt for only one of them. Participants in this call are invited to evaluate the compatibility of the study prizes up for grabs with other provisions of public and private bodies.

Participation in this announcement implies acceptance of each article contained there-in.

Art. 3 – Amount

The tendered amount will be disbursed in study prizes with amounts defined by the Evaluation Commission up to the overall maximum threshold of € 2,500 gross.

The economic relationship established does not constitute a claim of any kind against Collegio and McKinsey & Company.

The amount of the prizes is subject to the withholdings provided for by law.

Art. 4 – How to participate

The application form must be submitted by completing the appropriate online form available at the following link <https://forms.gle/hoa5wgrWXFGEBFTX6> no later than 3 December 2021.

Within the same deadline, the candidate must send the following documentation to his / her Director / Section Director exclusively via WeTransfer:

- Cover letter;
- Curriculum Vitae;
- Self-certification of exams taken both in the first level degree course and in the second cycle degree course (downloadable from the online portal of your university).

Art. 5 – Methods for awarding prizes

The applications will be analysed by a Commission made up of at least one HR representative of McKinsey & Company and the Director of the Residence Hall in which the candidate is a guest. The commission will evaluate the candidates as follows.

Preselective phase

Awarding of up to a maximum of 30 points, according to the following criteria:

- 1. Up to a maximum of 20 points for the evaluation of the student's academic curriculum, with focus on:
 - course of study carried out partially or entirely in English (3 points);
 - mobility abroad (3 points);
 - any extracurricular activities (student teams, research on topics of current relevance, voluntary work, etc.) (4 points);
 - weighted average of the exams taken in the master's degree course (both for those who are currently enrolled in a master's degree course and for those enrolled in a doctorate) (10 points);
- 2. Up to a maximum of 10 points for the evaluation of the cover letter.

The preselection phase is considered to have been passed with a score equal to or greater than 20 points.

Interview with the Commission

The Commission will carry out individual interviews with the candidates who have passed the pre-selection phase and will assign up to a maximum of 70 points per candidate, which will be added to the points obtained in the pre-selection phase.

The Commission's judgment will be final.

The Commission may decide, at its sole discretion, to award one or more prizes up to the maximum threshold of € 2,500.

The winning communication will be sent by e-mail to the interested parties by the end of March 2022.
