- newsletter
- paper notices on notice boards.

CHECK-IN / CHECK-OUT

The student's first entry into the residence hall at the beginning of the academic year (check-in) must be carried out from Monday to Friday from 8 am to 7pm

On arrival, the student receives the room keys and the room handover form at reception. Within 48 hours, the student must return the signed check-in form to the reception desk, detailing any observations on the state of the room and its furnishings

The definitive check-out (for those who give up their place of study and/or have finished their studies) or temporary check-out (for those who leave the Collegio for the summer break, or during the year for mobility projects), is carried out by appointment (to be made at the reception desk according to the availability of the residence hall Receptionists and cleaning staff), at least three working days before the day of departure from the Collegio. After joint verification of the state of the room, the student and the delegate of the Collegio (residence hall Receptionist) sign the room handover form, which is essential for activating the deposit refund procedure in the event of the student permanently abandoning the facility.

If at the time of check-out the student is not present at verification of the state of the room, please note that this is planned according to the organizational requirements of the Collegio Staff, the notes made in the minutes by the Collegio delegate will be taken as proof: in this case, no objection to any charges will subsequently be accepted.

The deposit will be refunded according to provision indicated in Collegio Call (admission or confirmation)

1) In order for the Collegio to be able to reimburse the deposit within the above timeframe, students must communicate their bank details when leaving the Collegio via the Student Portal accessible from the Collegio website.

The Collegio will not be liable for any delay in payment if the bank details are not provided as above. In addition, the Collegio provides the use of rooms for students requesting temporary storage of their personal belongings. In accordance with the last paragraph of art. 20 and paragraph 6 art. XV of the Regulations for holders of study places, the Collegio does not assume any duty of custody, either within the room or within the common areas, regarding valuables and/or money belonging to the student, including those delivered to the reception by couriers.

Please note that due to the summer closure of the Collegio, some residential services may be changed or reduced in the last week of opening.

MAINTENANCE

Routine maintenance work is carried out Monday to Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Urgent or emergency maintenance work is carried out 24 hours a day, every day of the week, including public holidays. Requests for routine maintenance should be submitted to the reception desk at the following address:

- on the mezzanine floor of the main building
- Telephone: 011-38 51 922
- Email: sez.crocetta@collegioeinaudi.it

The following table shows the priority ranking and intervention times for routine maintenance work requested at reception or by email.

Degree of priority	Activity Description	Intervention time for carrying out the inspection and/or taking charge of the intervention	Maintenance start and end times
High	Situations in which continuation may compromise the optimal conditions for staying in the facility (e.g., microclimatic conditions, infiltrations and/or leaks, lack of electricity, etc.).	During ordinary working hours: within 15 minutes Outside working hours: within 60 minutes	According to Table 2 and depending on whether the intervention can be carried out by the internal maintenance service or by external specialist suppliers
Medium	Situations that do not affect the normal use of the room, facility and/or use of the service.	Monday to Friday from 8.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. - same day Outside the above-mentioned working hours - first working day	According to Table 2 and depending on whether the intervention can be carried out by the internal maintenance service or by external specialist suppliers
Low	All other cases	Within 24 hours (Monday to Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.)	According to Table 2 and depending on whether the intervention can be carried out by the internal maintenance service or by external specialist suppliers

Table 1: Routine maintenance - how to classify the degree of priority and intervention times applied in the facility

Following the inspection, maintenance work is planned, based on the priority identified.

The following table shows the average execution times for maintenance work classified according to priority.

Degree of priority	Maintenance start and end times
High	a) If possible, carry out the intervention through the Collegio's Technical Office: At the same time as the inspection, also with provisional solutions to mitigate the fault found and limit the related damage, subsequently planning the final remedial intervention. b) If external supplier intervention is necessary or spare parts have to be found: At the same time as the inspection, the external supplier will be contacted immediately for emergency intervention, which will be immediate in the event of risk to the safety of residents (e.g., lift stoppage).
Medium	a) If possible, the intervention should be carried out by the Collegio's in-house maintenance team: Within 5 days. (Monday to Friday) b) If external supplier intervention is necessary or spare parts have to be found: The external supplier will be contacted immediately after the inspection by the internal maintenance technician and the work will be carried out within 5 working days.
Low	Interventions can be carried out within a period of 7 days from the date of the inspection. In the event of spare parts procurement, depending on the timing of their supply (usually maximum 30 days).

Table 2: average execution times of interventions classified according to priority level, applied in the structure

EMERGENCY INTERVENTIONS

Namely:

- in the case of risk to the safety of the residents;
- in the case of absence of electricity, hot water or heating inside the residence hall

An on-call service is available from the Technical Office, which can be activated via the reception desk (from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.) or via the external security service (outside the reception desk schedule).

CONNECTIVITY/EDITING

On entering the Collegio, the resident hall's system assistant creates access credentials for the Collegio's IT services, which are indispensable for using all the ICT services made available to residents (access to the Intranet, printing from the editing room, etc.).

Wi-Fi coverage is guaranteed in all areas of the Collegio.

6. Modulation of services in the event of a health emergency

WHAT HAPPENS IN THE EVENT OF A MEDICAL EMERGENCY

The above changes to the services offered will be applied in the event of a medical emergency. The occurrence of such a situation will be immediately communicated to place holders by publication on Collegio Einaudi communication channels.

Residents will be required to comply fully with the emergency regulations issued by the Authorities, remembering the primary need to respect the health of other Residents and of the Workers present in the Collegio.

If a Resident is required to self-isolate, they must spend the entire period in their own room (with a dedicated toilet) without being able to use the communal areas.

If, unfortunately, a Resident's conduct is such as to endanger the health of other Residents or staff, the judicial authorities will be informed.

If the Resident intends to return to his or her home, he or she must agree on the time and method with the Community Manager of the Residence Hall to which he or she belongs. It is up to the Residence Hall Community Manager to evaluate, taking into account the seriousness of the emergency, the conditions of the room and of the entire Residence Hall, the date on which the Resident intends to return to his/her home, and whether the Resident must provide for the total removal of his/her belongings.

FUNCTIONAL SERVICES

The opening hours of the functional services offered by the Collegio may be modified.

The environmental cleanliness and hygiene of the premises and communal toilets will comply with contingent needs, in accordance with the standards established by the authorities.

For residents in self-isolation, linen will be changed as needed. At the end of the self-isolation period, the room will be cleaned and sanitized (as per resident change).

The kitchen service on the floor may be discontinued or partially restricted in terms of the times and/or number of accesses allowed; self-isolating residents may have their meals delivered to their rooms at their own expense.

SERVICES FOR A BETTER QUALITY OF LIFE

Common areas (such as libraries, editing room, classrooms - study rooms, fitness room, games room, laundry room) and related services may only be used by residents according to an access regulation that will be drawn up when the emergency arises.

The guesthouse service reserved for the residents' families may be discontinued.

Access to the Collegio by third parties who are not residents (or possibly resident in other Halls) will be prevented or limited as required, according to assessment at the discretion of the General Management (even in the absence of limiting regulations).

Outside their own room, residents will be obliged - if established by the regulations drawn up by the Collegio at the time of the emergency - to apply specific hygiene measures and to use face masks and any other PPE (gloves, etc.) that may be appropriate, even if only optional. The provision of PPE will be the exclusive responsibility and expense of the Resident.

CHECK-IN E CHECK-OUT

If the first entry into the Residence Hall occurs in a health emergency, the Collegio reserves the right to ask the resident for health documentation and/or other special precautions (such as the result of a molecular/antigen swab, health green pass, vaccination certificate, etc.), as well as to prohibit entry if national and/or regional regulations provide for travel restrictions.

The Collegio has this right even if the resident has left the Collegio before or during the emergency period and intends to return within the period of validity of the accommodation contract. The Collegio will temporarily deactivate the badge of all residents not present at the Collegio when a health emergency occurs.

If, as a result of the emergency, Residents intend to leave their room and return to their home without returning to the Collegio during the current academic year, they will be required - in the absence of national and/or regional legislation establishing travel restrictions - to collect all their belongings left at the Collegio at their own expense by 20 July.

TRAINING ACTIVITIES

Training activities planned to be held in person may be cancelled, rescheduled, reorganized or delivered (wholly or partly) in virtual mode, as necessary.

In the latter case, students will access the Collegio's audio-video communication platform using their own hardware, software and telematic resources.
