- letter of introduction of the candidate from the thesis supervisor or from the professor of the foreign university, or from the company tutor.

Only applications for which candidates have submitted all the required documentation in the manner mentioned above will be considered valid.

How to select the winners

The winners of the prizes will be identified by a Scientific Commission designated by the Board of Directors of Collegio. The Commission will be able to make use of the scientific collaboration of teachers from the departments concerned.

The Commission will assess:

- a) the costs, methods of carrying out and objectives of the thesis, with particular regard to the international significance of the thesis work carried out, as well as the attendance of laboratories, departments and centers for the preparation of the thesis project;
- b) the university curriculum of the candidate.

The choice of the winners will be made - in the first instance - among the graduates of the degree course in Medicine and Surgery and, if the Commission does not identify suitable candidates for this course assignment of the degree prize, among the graduates of the other degree courses listed above.

The Commission's judgment will be final. The Commission reserves the right not to award any of the advertised prizes if there are not enough and/or suitable applications.

Final rankings will be published on the Collegio's INTRANET by February 28, 2025. Notification of the publication will be given via the Collegio's website and via social media.

Methods of disbursement of awards

The award will be paid out in a single payment, by the end of March 2025, by bank transfer to a current account in the name or joint name of the winner.

Any additional costs relating to payment operations (eg: foreign bank transfer) will be borne by the winner.

Following the publication of the rankings, the winners must communicate their bank details by filling in or updating the IBAN area of the Student Portal.
