Who we are

Collegio Einaudi is a private, non-profit foundation which manages "Collegi di Merito" recognized and accredited by the MUR.

With its five residence halls, Collegio offers accommodation and training courses to over 850 deserving university students.

Our mission

We value the merit and potential of university students motivated to develop new skills, achieve excellent results and grow as People, Citizens and Professionals, offering them a stimulating and interdisciplinary study and living environment and personalized and cross-disciplinary training pathway.

Much more than a University residence hall!

Fondazione Collegio Universitario Einaudi

The Collegio is an enviroment meant for personal growth, following the guiding values of the Fondazione's pedagogical model:

Centrality of the person

Secularism

Merit

Interculturality

Sustainability

Opening up to civil society and to the realities of the economic and professional world

Collegio is much more than just a University residence hall:

- a welcoming and stimulating community, in which to share life experiences with others and create long-lasting, constructive and profound bonds
- a place for intercultural and interdisciplinary training, where to grow both humanly and intellectually.

Our complementary and multidisciplinary training

Every student at Collegio Einaudi personalizes their own learning course, by defining an annual 'Piano Formativo Personalizzato' (PFP), which lasts:

70 hours
for Bachelor's students

25 hours
for Master's students

Learning at Collegio Einaudi is a transformative experience that, together with community life, contributes to personal growth and prepares students to face future challenges.

The training and services offered are highly personalized to enrich the university experience and prepare students to become active and positive contributors to society.

Experiences you will live with Collegio's training!
